Wheelpower's Inter Spinal Unit Games 2018

Stewarts co-sponsored the 2018 Inter Spinal Unit Games. The event took place at Stoke Mandeville Stadium from 17 to 19 April and was extra special this year as participants celebrated the 70th anniversary of the first Stoke Mandeville games.

The Inter Spinal Unit Games are held annually at Stoke Mandeville Stadium, the birthplace of the paralympic movement. This year participants celebrated 70 years since Ludwig Guttmann founded the games after recognising the value of sport in supporting the independence and healthy lifestyle of spinal patients.

The first Stoke Mandeville Games took place on 29 July 1948 to coincide with the opening ceremony of the Olympic Games in London. Sixteen spinal cord patients took part in a wheelchair archery competition aimed at helping them build their strength and confidence as part of their rehabilitation.

The Inter Spinal Unit Games are organised by WheelPower, a national charity providing sporting opportunities for people with physical impairments. More information on WheelPower can be found on their website here.
